

IGCSE Listening Test Exercise 5: Set 2

Exercise 5

You will hear an interview with a teacher called Jane Clark about an organisation called TeenCode. For each question, choose the correct answer, A, B or C, and put a tick (✓) in the appropriate box.

You will hear the interview twice.

Now look at questions 33–40.

Question 33

What is the main aim of TeenCode?

- A to give more support to science teachers
- B to show how science is relevant to real life
- C to encourage more girls to take up science

(1)

Question 34

What surprised Jane about the TeenCode event she went to?

- A how quiet the students were
- B how well organised it was
- C how many students were there

(1)

IGCSE Listening Test Exercise 5: Set 2

Question 35

At the TeenCode event, most of the day was spent

A listening to talks.

B taking part in challenges.

C doing scientific experiments.

(1)

Question 36

In the Invention Workshop, each group of students

A worked as if they were a new company.

B had to design a computer game.

C was given a different product to work on.

(1)

Question 37

Jane's group came up with an app which was meant to

A reduce the cost of something.

B create some enjoyment.

C make something safer.

IGCSE Listening Test Exercise 5: Set 2

Question 38

Teams that enter for a TeenCode award must

A be the same size.

B choose a category.

C work independently.

(1)

Question 39

The 'Teacher of the Year' award was established to

A improve the standard of teaching in schools.

B encourage more people to become teachers.

C recognise the work involved in supporting students.

(1)

Question 40

How does Jane feel about the City of Tomorrow competition?

A confident that her students will reach the final

B enthusiastic about using more technology in class

C inspired to find out more about architecture

(1)